

Educator Opportunities

Japanese American Experience

Every February, the Japanese American Citizens League sponsors a workshop for elementary, middle and high school teachers to teach about Japanese American culture and World War II internment. The event features guest speakers, lunch, and a guided tour of the Arizona Historical Society World War II exhibit, and curriculum binder.

Summer Seminars

"A Crash Course in Arizona Studies" is held in June. Morning presentations form an overview of Arizona history, while the afternoon workshops demonstrate how to use primary sources to teach about Arizona's past.

In-service opportunities

1. AHS 101 (an introduction to what the museum has to offer as a community resource, perfect for pre-service student teachers)
2. Using Primary Sources in the Classroom (lesson plans and classroom activities that help make history come alive by using primary sources)
3. Developing Exhibits Instead of Term Papers (learn how to use exhibits as an outcome based grade in your classroom)
